

WHITE ELEPHANT HUNT

GPS Challenge is BACK..... as an extra event during Goldfield Days.

Load fresh batteries in your GPS and get ready to eat some dirt and have some fun! It's still an outback adventure... but with a new twist.

When: Friday & Saturday,
August 3 & 4, 2018

Time: 9:00am --- 3:00 pm

Where: Goldfield Historical Society Booth
Euclid Avenue

For a $15.00 donation to the Goldfield Historical Society, you will receive coordinates to a hidden envelope with a magic number. Bring that number back to the booth and redeem your unique, genuine white elephant prize. (No whining allowed!)

Open to 4X4, ATV, SideXSide. High clearance vehicles at your own risk. No motorcycles, please and no alcohol. Drivers must be over 18 unless accompanied by an adult. Signed waiver required.

White Elephant

- 1, An albino elephant.
2. Something from which little profit or use is derived.
3. Any object no longer desired by its owner but of possible value to others.
4. The weird thing Uncle Alvin gave you that lives in the closet until he comes to visit.

For more info: call Edie or Richard at 775 485-3400